ELIZABETH "Bessie" PHIPPEN KELLER

An air-mail letter from Tampa, Florida advises of the passing of Elizabeth "Bessie" Phippen on Friday April 26th in her ninetieth year

Bessie Phippen as she was more familiarly known, was born at Conway on the first concession of Fredericksburgh, the eighth of a family of eleven to bless the union of Richard Phippen and Cecelia Ann Sloan. In the year 1890 she wed Joseph Keller son of one of the pioneer families of Ernesttown district. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Manitoba, settling just south of Whitewater Lake where Mr Keller farmed successfully a number of years until their retirement and removal to Winnipeg. Mr Keller died in 1931 approximately five years following their removal to Tampa, Florida

Bessie Phippen was very proud of her lineage through her mother's family. Cecelia Ann Sloan (her mother) was the sixth child of nine, born near Hay Bay to William John Sloan who came out from Ireland about 1820, and Julia Ann Spencer born in the front of Fredericksburgh to the late Colonel Hazelton R. Spencer, U.E., and his pioneer wife Margaret Richards, U.E.L., daughter of the famed scout attached to Sir John Johnson's Loyalist battalions during the Revolutionary War. Colonel Hazelton Spencer, while still a Major, was elected to and served in the first Legislative Assembly of Upper Canada. A great many Canadians today proudly trace their lineage to this intrepid Loyalist

Surviving the death of Mrs Keller are, a sister Mrs Maude Hinch of Union Bay, B.C., a sister-in-law Mrs Henrietta Phippen of Conway who will observe her 96th birthday in June next; a brother-in-law Peter Keller of Tampa, Fla.; two sister-in-laws, Mrs C.E. Outteridge, Tampa and Mrs Charlotte Montgomery, Miami; niece Mrs C.B. Jones, Tampa; niece Jennie (Mrs Wilfred) Haight, Conway; nieces in Ontario (7), in New York (1), in Manitoba (3), B.C. (5), and five nephews in Ontario (2) and B.C. (3).
